

Chris Mott. I am a graduate of Penn State University with a BA in Communications. After graduating from college, I quickly climbed the ranks of the real estate and property management industry to finally become the Vice President of Northern California for Pinnacle; one of the largest property management companies in the nation. At the peak of my professional legacy spanning three decades, I was responsible for the acquisition, repositioning, and maximization of all classes of residential real estate including class A multifamily apartment buildings, commercial developments, and home owners associations. I have a track history of assembling successful and cohesive teams who work for the benefit of all who we are entrusted to serve. For the last ten years, I have established my own coaching firm and I now coach individuals both personally and professionally nationwide. it would be an honor and privilege to serve you as a trusted board member who you can count on to perform.
