Procedure for Enforcing Rules & Resolving Violations

“Per Occurrence” Violations
Step 1	The Board of Directors or Community Manager is made aware of the alleged violation either by witnessing the violation or receiving a written report from another owner or guest.
Step 2	The Community Manager will engage in a fact-finding mission to determine if a violation occurred. The Community Manager will call or email the owner to discuss the alleged violation and determine an appropriate remediation if a violation continues to exist.
Step 3	If a violation is proven to have occurred, and has not been remedied or has occurred again within 30 days, a certified letter with a notice of hearing will be mailed to the owner.
Step 4	A hearing will be held. The Board will determine if a fine will be levied against the owner.
Step 5	If the violation still is not remedied or occurs again after 60 days, the Board of Directors may take legal action or impose a fine of $300.
Step 6	If fines are not paid, the Board of Directors may file a lien on the property.
Continuing Violations
Step 1	The Board of Directors or Community Manager is made aware of the alleged violation either by witnessing the violation or receiving a written report from another owner or guest.

Step 2	The Community Manager will engage in a fact-finding mission to determine if a violation occurred. The Community Manager will call or email the owner to request abatement within a reasonable time period.
Step 3	If abatement of a continuing violation is not reached within the reasonable time period, then a certified letter will be mailed with a notice of hearing.
Step 4	A hearing will be held. The Board will determine if a fine will be levied against the owner.
Step 5	If the violation still is not remedied or occurs again after 60 days, the Board of Directors may take legal action or impose a fine of $300.
Step 6	If fines are not paid, the Board of Directors may file a lien on the property.
